The Central States Pension Fund's Economic Impact on Washington's 6th District

36

CENTRAL STATES FUND
PARTICIPANTS IN DISTRICT

Retired (27), active (1), and inactive (8) pension plan participants in the 6th District

These participants rely on the strength of their multiemployer pension plan for their future retirement security.

1

CENTRAL STATES EMPLOYERS WITH EMPLOYEES IN THE DISTRICT

Number of companies who employ participants residing in Washington's 6th District

These employers provide the jobs that are the lifeline of the District's local economy. Bipartisan pension legislation would provide relief to these employers from increasing liabilities that are putting jobs at risk.

$6,436

CONTRIBUTIONS MADE ON FUND
PARTICIPANTS IN THE DISTRICT

Plan contributions made on behalf of 6th District participants in 2017

These contributions help ensure that Central States participants, including 6th District constituents, will have a hard earned pension in their retirement.

$328,169

ANNUAL BENEFITS PAID

Total annual payments to pension beneficiaries in the 6th District

Research shows that retirement benefits strengthen local businesses and economies by encouraging economic activity, leading to higher incomes for workers and more jobs created by local employers.

Top Employers with Participants Residing in District:

Top Employers With All Active Participants Residing out of District:

$25,684

ANNUAL IN-DISTRICT TAXES PAID

Total annual federal tax payments made by retirees on their benefits

On average, each retiree pays $951 in federal tax revenue every year on their benefits.

$3,440,507

PENSIONS AT RISK

Current pensions at risk in Washington's 6th District

The loss of this retirement income to Washington's 6th District constituents may result in reduced economic activity in the district, weakened local businesses, lower incomes for workers and fewer jobs.
